STATE ODDS AND ENDS.

TAPP'S VICTIM DEAD.

His Slayer Is Hidden Away From Mob Law—Released on $5,000 Bail—Warrant Issued.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., May 30.—Jim Tapp narrowly escaped being lynched Sunday night. The sheriff received information that a mob was gathering and spirited him away to the home of a relative, five miles from town, and when spies of the mob came to see if the way was clear they discovered that he was gone and were unable to find where.

When they returned with this information, the mob quietly dispersed. At the preliminary examination Monday morning Tapp waived his examining trial and was released on $5,000 bond to appear before the grand jury next week, but when Elmer Franks died one hour later he was rearrested and held without bond to answer to the charge of murder. He is in the hands of the authorities, but his whereabouts are kept secret, as no mob is still feared.

A warrant was issued Monday evening for Sam Tapp, charging him with murder and carrying concealed weapons.

PRAYERS ON A RACE TRACK.

The Christian Workers of Lexington Hold Sabbath-School in the Grand Stand of the Old Kentucky Association Track.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 26.—J. S. Weathers, of the First Presbyterian church, this city, is conducting a mission Sunday-school under the grand stand of the old Kentucky association race track. This is no doubt the first Sunday-school ever held in such a place. It was begun the first Sunday in May and the attendance has been growing until now there are 110 names on the rolls.

Superintendent Farris gave Mr. Weathers permission to use the building, and he is present every Sunday afternoon, and sees that the program is carried out.

Children in the Settlements. The children come from the settlement back of the race track, and the most of them live on breakridge street. Many of them never went to Sunday school before and not a few of them were never inside of a church.

Discovered in a Dying Condition. MIDDLESBORO, Ky., May 27.—Mrs. D. M. Sampson, wife of a shoemaker, has just been discovered in a dying condition in her house where, on Saturday last, her husband knocked her down with his hammer, stamped her violently, and further tortured her by jabbing awls into her face. He then fled, leaving the helpless woman to be without food or attention until she was found Friday.

Homeopathic Society. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 27.—The fourteenth annual session of the Kentucky State Homeopathic Medical society adjourned Thursday to meet in Paris next May. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. H. B. Kastleman, of Midway, president; Dr. J. T. Vansant, of Paris, vice president; Dr. J. W. Kirschbaum, of Danville, treasurer, and Dr. Fred E. Peck, of Augusta, secretary.

Fined the Town. PAINTSVILLE, Ky., May 30.—Judge A. J. Auxier has fined the town of Paintsville $51 for failing to maintain a bridge. An appeal will be taken, wherein is involved the jurisdiction as to the bridge.

Howard-Baker Trouble Breaks Out Again. BARBOURSVILLE, Ky., May 29.—The celebrated Howard-Baker feud has broken out afresh. Thomas Baker, considered the leader of the Baker faction, was shot and killed from ambush. He was out on bond, pending his trial for murder. It is reported that his friends will again take up arms against their old enemies and a bloody warfare may be expected.

Commencement at Gethsemane. GETTHEMANI, Ky., May 29.—The commencement exercises of Gethsemani college will take place on Wednesday, June 14, commencing at 11 o'clock a.m. A choice literary and musical programme will be presented. The abbott of the Abbey of Gethsemani will preside.

L. E. Mann for State Senator. OWINGSVILLE, Ky., May 29.—The district convention assembled here Wednesday, and after endorsing the Chicago platform of 1890 and pledging their support to W. J. Bryan for president in 1900, nominated L. E. Mann, of Rowan county, on first ballot for state senator.

ORDERS ISSUED.

President McKinley Makes the Expected Civil Service Change.

The Change Is Necessary to Meet the New Conditions That Are Arising in the Public Service—About Four Thousand Places Affected.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Wednesday was the last day of the G. A. R. encampment. The grand parade occurred Wednesday. Col. Joseph H. Brown, of Louisville, was elected department commander on the first ballot. There were six candidates. Dr. F. J. Taylor, of this place, was elected vice commander, and Lancaster was chosen over Covington for the place of meeting.

The veterans declared that the reception by Glasgow citizens and confederates was warm and hospitable. They adopted resolutions thanking the citizens for the royal welcome given them.

Troops Ordered to Drill.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 26.—The 1st battalion, 1st Kentucky regiment, state guards, comprising the three Lexington companies and the Winchester company, received orders by Col. Roger Williams to report to their armories Monday night in full equipment and make ready for rifle practice Tuesday and Wednesday. They have also been ordered to drill every night this week.

Preparations are also being made to receive a supply of ammunition (ball cartridges) and camp equipment, which will be shipped from the state's arsenal at Frankfort.

Toy Pistol a Weapon.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 28.—In police court Friday morning Judge John J. Riley ruled that a toy pistol, which was found in the pocket of Clarence Ilossey, a colored boy, was a concealed weapon and sentenced the lad to 30 days in jail and $50 fine. The pistol was of the kind in which blank cartridges are fired and in which a ball cartridge could also be fired. The judge said that he desired to break up the practice of using toy pistols and instructed the boy to report to a regular gunsmith.

Pony Prospects for Wheat.

DANVILLE, Ky., May 30.—Boyle county farmers are very blue over the wheat prospect. On the top of the killing weather comes the hessian fly, and good judges say there will not be over 60 per cent. of an average crop.

Fields in some instances which in former years have yielded from twenty-five to thirty-five bushels will this year be cut to ten or fifteen, and some will not be worth harvesting.

Increased Postal Force.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 27.—News has been received from Washington that 20 clerks in the post office have been granted increases in salary of $100 or more, and that a finance clerk and auditor of stations at $1,700 per annum, have been allowed, together with three new substations and more carriers. This increases the patronage here considerably.

Smallpox Postpones Court Session.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 28.—The Lexington board of health recommends that there be no circuit court held here in June, owing to smallpox at the county jail. The prisoners now in jail will be quarantined on the pesthouse farm for 30 days and the jail will be fumigated each week.

Fell Down Stairs.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 30.—Ed. Crawley, aged 28, married, boiler maker in the C. & O. shops, fell down stairs at the C. & O. depot, fracturing his skull. His recovery is doubtful.

Child's Body Found.

OWENSBORO, Ky., May 29.—Some boys at Pelleville, seeing a post planted in an unusual place, concluded to investigate, and pulling it up, found the dead body of a child buried in the posthole. The child had evidently come to his death from natural causes, but suspicion is rife as to why it was disposed of.

Must Repay Tolls.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 26.—The court of appeals decided Wednesday that the Louisville Bridge Co. must repay $108,000 collected as tolls from the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co. in excess of what the contract between the two contemplated.

Fatally Shot His Friend.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 30.—Marion Carfield, a young man of Worthington, was accidentally shot and killed by Thomas Ilipp, music teacher and his best friend. They were out hunting.

New Post Office in Kenwick. WASHINGTON, May 26.—A post office has been established at Nisi, Fleming County, Ky., with George Cooper as postmaster.

THE ELECTROCUTION CHAIR.

Wife-Murderer Adrian Braun Pays the Penalty at Sing Sing—He Was pronounced Dead in One Minute.

SING SING, N. Y., May 30.—Adrian Braun, the wife murderer, was electrocuted Monday morning. The current, which recorded 1,500 volts, was turned on at 9:15 a.m., and Braun was pronounced dead in one minute.

A scene was created by Braun in the death chamber. After he had been seated in the chair and the attendants were adjusting the face mask, he raised his right hand, apparently as a signal to stop the proceedings.

The warden's assistants paused, while Braun, his whole frame quivering, slowly said:

"Jesus, for you I lived."

"Jesus, for you I die."

"Jesus, you are mine in life and death."

As he said the last word Braun's head dropped forward on his breast and he heaved a deep sigh. The attendants then completed the adjustment of the electrodes and in a few seconds the murderer was dead.

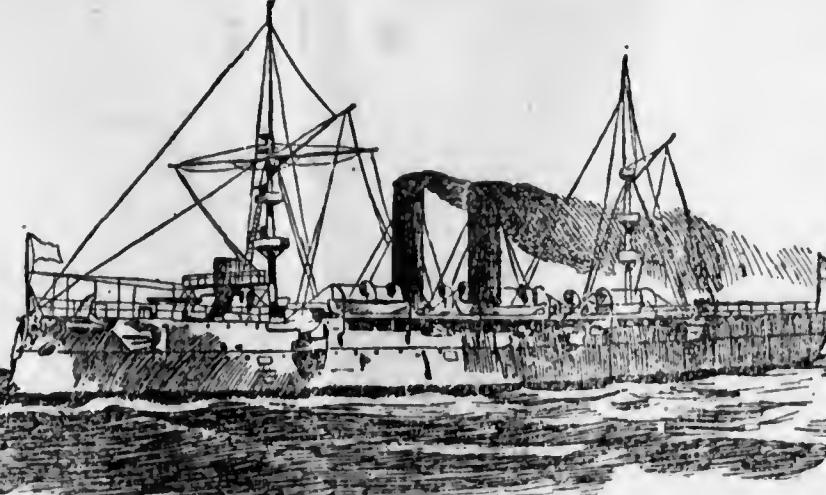

Braun was a large, muscular man and his wife an undersized, frail creature, the mother of five children. Braun was known in the neighborhood as a wifebeater. After years of abuse of his wife interfered and caused his arrest and he was sent to prison for two years, August 31, 1897. Mrs. Braun earned a living for her children by washing.

May 15, 1898, she went to Sing Sing to visit her husband, taking with her a basket of delicacies. Braun was at work peeling potatoes when his wife arrived at the prison. He slipped the sharp-pointed knife into his pocket and greeted her lovingly. As they about to separate, Braun, who had the act of embracing his wife, stuck the potato-knife into her several times. One of the stabs went deep, the other did not, but was so late to it, and as he pulled the knife out he fell dead.

The Alleged Effects of an Inhibition.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 29.—Braun, a member of the 12th U.S. cavalry, was flogged at the Lodge, of Hepburn, on May 18. The members, it is said, were using a spanking board with blank cartridges attached. The board was turned the wrong way and a cartridge exploded, the shell entering Foch's thigh. Blood poisoning and lockjaw resulted.

UNITED STATES CRUISER DETROIT.

Stationed at Bluefields, Nicaragua, to Protect the Interests of American Merchants.

AT HER DAUGHTER'S HOME.

Widow Clarke Committed Suicide by Cutting Her Throat With a Razor—Her Head Almost Severed.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 30.—At Rhea Springs, Tenn., Mrs. Sarah Clarke, a widow, committed suicide by cutting her throat with a sharp razor. She almost severed her head from her shoulders. The awful deed was committed at the home of her daughter, in front of a mirror and in the presence of two small children. Mrs. Clarke had been demented for some time.

Some months ago a traveling evangelist preached in her neighborhood and she became so thoroughly worked up that she lost her reason. She recently poisoned several members of her family, that they might join her late lamented husband in heaven.

Their Limbs Ground Off.

STEVENVILLE, O., May 30.—While Joseph and Louis Kenouto and John Lawrence, Slavish laborers, employed at the Mingo steel works, were at work on a trestle 25 feet high, an engine backed a rainy coke car on to the trestle to be unloaded and ran over the three, grinding off their limbs. They fell to the ground and were brought to King's Daughters' hospital and several physicians are in attendance. They are hurt internally, and their recovery is doubtful.

The Stanford Democrat will be the name of a new paper to be started by Joe Waters and T. M. Goodnight.

A call on Gen. Joe Wheeler to run for Governor of Alabama is being made by many newspapers of that State.

The looseness with which newspaper offices are run is shown in the fact that a number of papers still come addressed to the Commercial, now about 18 months
defunct.—[Interior Journal]

AFTER 25 years of newspaper work Editor Walton of the Interior Journal had about concluded to retire but as the time drew near he concluded it would be too tiresome for him to be out of the harness and he has rolled up his sleeves and is up and at em with renewed vigor.
He has reduced the price of his excellent paper to $1. We are much pleased to know brother Walton who is the best newspaper man in Kentucky will remain in the work for which he is so eminently qualified to pursue.

Cardinal Gibbons makes a thrust at the women who are so much agitated over the polygamous Mormon Congressman, Roberts.
"The reckless facility with which wives are procured in this country is scarcely less deplorable than Mormonism. Indeed, it is in some respects more dangerous than the latter, for divorce has the sanction of the civil law, which Mormonism has not. Is not the law of divorce a virtual toleration of Mormonism in a modified form? Mormonism consists in simultaneous polygamy, while the law of divorce practically leads to successive polygamy." Somebody will yet be mean enough to say that there is a vast difference between polygamy and easy divorce, since polygamy gives woman a chance at a fraction of a man, while divorce gives her a chance at several different men.

The combinations obtained above are very remarkable but carrying them still further, with stranger results, we find that by adding 1899 to the sums thus far obtained, viz., 4014 and 5913, the sum is 11,826, and by adding these figures we have 18, which added produce 9. Furthermore, if we add the first figure of the above sum to the last two, viz., 118 to 26, we have 144, and these figures added give us 9.

We have now tried the results of addition and of subtraction on these mystic figures, and will now see what multiplication will do. If we multiply 18 by 99 the product is 1782; these figures when added give us 18, and carefully add the numerals used in this multiplication we will find the addition to be 63, and by adding these we have
9. Now we will multiply the first three figures of the year by the last, viz., 189 by 9, we find 1701, and by adding these figures we have 9, or if we add the numerals used in this calculation we find they amount to 36, and these added again produce 6. We will multiply the two products obtained a bove, viz., 1782 by 1701, and we have 3,031,182; these figures added produce 18 and these added give us 9.

Innumerable changes could be run on these mystic figures, but the most remarkable part is that the letters comprising the words eighteen ninety-nine are 18, and these two, when added produce the inevitable 9.—Detroit Free Press.

Woodford county will work out

The Winchester Democrat says dealers are now offering 5¢ec for lambs to be delivered from 1st to 10th of June.

A good hen will lay in her lifetime (averaging 3½ years) from 600 to 700 eggs. In Swiss villages eggs are in circulation instead of money.

Bud Dunn, of Madison, bought of H. Brannaman four two-year-old 900 lb cattle at $40 per head; six of the same age from M. Lear at $30 and four from Per Hiatt for $160.

Considering the dullness of the wool market, all kinds, sorts, sexes and breeds of breeding sheep are high in price and in brisk demand, says the Sheep Breeder.

Fifty walnut trees in Cass county
Mich., were recently sold for $10,- 000. The largest tree is seven feet in diameter at the base, and will yield lumber worth from $700 $1,- 000.

The Democrat reports only about 100 cattle on the market at Winchester Monday. Few buyers were present, but most everything was sold. Wiel sold 40 good steers, weighing from 500 to 600 pounds,
at $4.85 to $5, which was the top of the market.

Horses, cattle, sheep and hogs are the finished products of the farm through which the profit must come. We believe no farm will be at its best until these animals are installed, and we are quite sure that the successful farmer of to-day is he who has already recognized and acted upon that fact.

Conrad Hiatt sold at Lancaster Court yesterday a bunch of heifers at $19.25 and some cow stuff at 3c; J. M. Cress sold a lot of yearling steers at $16 and Emmett Benton some twoyear-old steers at $23.50. A good crowd was present and considerable trading done.—Starford Journal.

Mr. J. Ed. Cosby, of Red House, who made numerous experiments last year, says he has discovered an exterminator for that pestiferous weed known to farmers as "iron weed." He says cut the weed off close to the ground with a hoe or scythe and sprinkle common barrel salt on the stump and in a few days it will turn black, rot clear to the roots, and you will be troubled with a new growth of the stalk no more.

Dr. W. J. Childress has returned from his Louisville school. He will practice in his neighborhood and will also teach his home school. He graduates in medicine the next term.

Among the list of fourteen graduates of Caldwell College Danville this year appear the names of Miss Ida May Adams of Mt. Vernon and Miss Mary Hackley, of Lincoln, who is a niece of the Editor.

The trustees of the town met Tuesday morning and rejected all bids for the building of the town jail; sent for the county jailer and made arrangements with him to take care of the prisoners hereafter.

Owing to financial losses it has been found necessary to curtail the expenses at Kentucky University.

As a result, Profs. Walter C. Levi, Henry B. Robinson and J. Kemper have tendered their resignations.—(Richmond Register).

Thine arms should be carefully concealed. They have an impoverished look that robs their owner of some of her dignity. If the arms are unduly long, as they occasionally are, the effect may be neutralized by wearing wide bands of black velvet fastened with pretty buttons or clasps or buckles. This reduces the apparent length of the arms. "Thin arms," says M. Charles Blanc, the great French authority on dress, "denote bad health and an enfeebled race." The best remedy is to wash the arms with a fine lather of soap at least twice a day, and to dry them thoroughly and rub them vigorously. This treatment brings the pores into action and induces a healthy condition of the skin. Rubbing with a soft chamois leather is excellent for the skin, giving it both smoothness and gloss.—[Ladies Home Journal].

Why is it that the side walk has not been put down on West Main in front of the Welch property? The order was made a year ago.

The trustees should not force some and let others go that were included in that same order. County Clerk Dick Miller's fence on Richmond street has never been set back, while all the others along that street have. The pavement from Houk's corner to the Christian church has never been touched.

Captain Tom Jim Ballard, of Jackson county, and Col. W. R. Dillon, of Livingston, Rockcastle county, were here Tuesday negotiating with Richmond parties for the sale of a tract of timber land. Mr. Ballard enjoys the distinction of being the first man that raised a Rebel flag in Madison county, while Col. Dillon, who is his brother-in-law, was a staunch Union man and is now one of the big Republicans of that section, usually carrying the vote of Rockcastle in his vest pocket.—[Richmond Register].

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Balcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by—M. C. & D. N. Williams Druggist.

31. N. H. TYREE.

Mrs. Lee Tate, Mrs. J. F. Griffin, and Mrs. Bogue Phillips gave this office a pleasant visit Tuesday afternoon last. They talked with relatives over the Telephone at Crab Orchard and were wonderfully pleased with Mt. Vernon's new enterprise. One of them thought it was better than a Punch and Judy show.

An exchange wants to know what is home without a newspaper, and Tom Davis, of the Maysville Ledger, jumps up with this reply: "It is a place where old hats are stuffed into broken windows, where the wife looks like a bag of wool with a string around the center, where the husband has a panorama printed on his shirt front and the neglected children wipe their noses on their shirt sleeves."

Fifty years ago Mr. Kirtly, of this place bought two shrubs of Alanthus or tree of life, in Louisville for $10. These bushes were planted here and now the fields around town are being over-run with them. The odor from their leaves is so offensive that flies will not alight thereon, and it is further claimed that birds shun these trees on all occasions.

Why is it that the side walk has not been put down on West Main in front of the Welch property?

The order was made a year ago. The trustees should not force some and let others go that were included in that same order. A young married lady got on the train with her new babe not far from here, and didn't have time to purchase a ticket in advance. She gave a five dollar bill to the conductor from which to take her fare. As the official took the money he castingly glanced down at the baby and inquired: "Haven't you anything smaller?" —meaning the money. She replied: "No, I've only been married a year and this is my first child."

I don't think any one can sew any cheaper for cutting and making. So please correct. Respectfully, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith.

Patience and Practice.

A clever young physician here, who, like so many of his brethren everywhere, has had a weary time trying to build up a practice, nevertheless meets his hard fortune with smiling gaiety. Like Warren Hastings, his motto is "Nitidus Adest Ardentius." In company with a friend, he had occasion the other day to go into the Hibernia bank, where, owing to the throng of customers, he could not get his business transacted at once. After considerable delay, his companion, a nervous little man, complained irritably of the inconvenience to which they were subjected.

"Doesn't this put you out of patience, Doc?" was asked.
"My dear sir," returned the medico, gaily, "to be out of patients is my chronic condition. I haven't had one for a week."—San Francisco News Letter.

THE STORM IN NEBRASKA.

Small Grain Nearly All Destroyed and Fruit Ruined in Five Counties—Considerable Stock Drowned.

OMAHA, Neb., May 30.—Additional reports received Monday show that Sunday's storms in Nebraska were more wide-spread and more destructive than at first reported. Several hailstorms hit five counties in the south central part of the state, namely Adams, Clay, Fillmore, Saline and Tazewell while in Cedar county in the extreme northwest part of the state, a cloudburst did an immense amount of damage. In the counties hit by the hail small grain is nearly all destroyed and fruit ruined, while the loss in broken glass in houses makes quite a respectable sum.

The cloudburst in Cedar county is described in a special to the Bee, from Hartington, as follows:

Sunday night a cloudburst visited the northeast part of the county, thoroughly deluging the country, flooding houses, sweeping away barns and out-buildings and drowning considerable stock. Every bridge on East Bow creek, from its source to the Missouri river, is out. The damage is very heavy. During the storm the Catholic church and priest's house at Menomenie were badly shattered by lightning. A cyclone cloud appeared, but did little damage.

Farmers who were hit by the Hamilton county tornado are destitute and a relief fund is being raised for their benefit.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 30.—Reports of a severe rain and wind storm in western Wisconsin are coming in. A special from Janesville, Wis., says:

In the town of La Prairie the barns on Alexander McClellan's and Ed Paul's farms were wrecked. Twelve windmills, close to the city, were destroyed. On Thornton Reid's farm 80 rods of fence were blown down. Large trees were uprooted and for half an hour a small cyclone prevailed. Much of the early crops are destroyed.

British Holloway, a hamlet near Poston, was nearly destroyed by the heavy wind. The town hall and several small buildings were blown down and other damage done.

Lacrosse reports that in many places crops were actually washed from the ground, and railroads, especially the Burlington & Milwaukee road, where much new work was going on, also is a heavy sufferer.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., May 30.—A tornado passed across Champaign county from the west to the east at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. The storm cloud struck on a ridge five miles south of this city doing slight damage and then rebounded into the air. It was seen 25 miles further east, several hundred feet in the air and was then separating. The cloud was followed by a terrific hail-storm, which did great damage in the vicinity of Flomer and Sidney. At Sidney hundreds of windows were battered in by the large hailstones. The hill did much damage to the growing corn.

Owosso, Mich., May 30.—The tornado which passed through the village of Perry, 12 miles from this city Sunday night, destroyed $55,000 worth of property.

DREYFUS HEARING BEGUN.

Good Prospects of the Prisoner of Devil's Island Receiving a New Trial Guards Surround the Palace of Justice.

PARIS, May 30.—The hearing in the Dreyfus revision case began Monday. An army of guards surrounded the palace of justice, warded by the threatened aspect in the streets where riots followed the sessions of the courts.

The prospects are very favorable for Dreyfus in receiving a rehearing of the charges brought against him.

The court adjourned at 6:30, when very few of the public yet remained in the vicinity. The republican guards immediately returned to barracks and the cordon of police was dispersed.

QUITE A SOMEBODY.

His Name Was Dave Hannum and He Was the Father of the Cardiff Giant.

The original of the character of David Hannum, in the novel of the same name, has been identified as the late David Hannum, a former resident of Clinton and a noted character in central New York. He was prominent in business and figured in numerous horse trades, which explains some of the passages in the book. A correspondent writing from Ithaca relates many amusing stories about him, one of which runs as follows:

"It was David Hannum that exploited the famous Cardiff giant. At first he owned the curiosity in partnership with a man from Ithaca named Hull, but he soon bought Hull out, and it was he that did most of the show business with the giant until the facts in regard to the hoax became known.

It was while he was traveling around the country showing this curiosities that the peculiar humor of the man was well illustrated. One day a dapper young man entered a passenger car of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western train.

The car was well filled, but there was one seat occupied only by a short, thick set, rather uncouth man, who managed to spread himself over nearly the whole seat. Going up to him the young man ordered him to sit along and give the newcomer part of the seat. Something in the manner in which the order was given did not suit the older man, and he refused to stir. "See here, do you know who I am?" inquired the young man, irritated at the other's obstinacy. "My name is Sloan, and my father is president of this road." "See here, young man, do you know who I am?" was the ready and unabashed reply of the man, who did not stir an inch when he spoke. "My name is Dave Hannum, and I'm the father of the Cardiff giant."—Troy Times.

TO SEE BEHIND.

A Recent Invention Which Enables Cyclists, Runners, Etc., to Do So.

"Hindsight" is better than foresight in some contingencies, and a man who appreciates that fact has had the foundation of a modest fortune in securing a patent upon a novel little device which supplies "hindsight" to the people who need it most.

"A post-vision reflector" is what the inventor calls his new invention. It is an arrangement of adjusted mirrors, which enables the wearer to see everything occurring within a certain range behind his back without turning his head.

The post-vision reflector will be useful to jockeys, drivers, rowers and cyclists.

For jockeys this appliance is fastened to the bows of a pair of big spectacles, fitted with a glass of no incoming power, so glasses are splendid mud-guards, to protect the eyes from the dirt thrown up by the horses' flying feet. The little reflectors are fastened above the glasses, and set at an angle which brings the full width of a race track for a distance of 100 yards within clear range of vision.

For rowers and bicyclists the post-vision reflector is as valuable as it is to horsemen.

Rowers and cyclists do not need the mud-guards, and for them a second patent provides for the adjustment of the reflectors to a light head band, which holds them in exact relative position to the eye, no matter at what angle the head of the wearer may be turned.
